CANADIAN SCHOOL COUNSELLOR
MAGAZINE

2026 MEDIA KIT

The magazine for Canada's high school guidance counsellors

Whether as an ADVOCATE or an ADVISOR, today's counsellors assist students through a variety of issues. Canadian School Counsellor magazine provides the counsellors with the access to some of the many tools and resources they will require when discussing the options available to their students, allowing them to make informed life choices and decisions about their future education and career goals.

DISTRIBUTION & READERSHIP

Canadian School Counsellor is the only national magazine created specifically for high school guidance counsellors in Canada. The magazine is nationally distributed to virtually every high school, and approximately 700 First Nations offices in Canada at key times during the school year: February, May, September and November.

Our readership is 100% qualified. Each issue of the magazine is sent directly to the most current listing of school guidance and career counsellors – our subscriber listings are internally monitored and regularly maintained to ensure accuracy.

EDITORIAL

Spanning the nation and reaching an audience of both English and French readers, each issue of Canadian School Counsellor publishes bilingual content which is reflected in its translation of the cover, and secondary editorial features.

Between the covers of this award winning magazine you'll find editorial tailored to the reader's professional needs. From the latest developments in their field, to one-on-one interviews with renowned experts, along with the most recent updates on today's trending topics, all content is designed to engage and inform today's high school guidance counsellors.

MAXIMUM VALUE EXPOSURE

Canadian School Counsellor magazine maximizes your advertising dollars as it is the only publication of its type that specifically targets high school and career service professionals in Canada. While similar publications are available, Canadian School Counsellor magazine is the only one reaching the unique and target audience of high school counsellors. It is the only national magazine that is received exclusively by those professionals who are counselling today's high school students and providing them with direction in regard to their post-secondary education and career options.

SUSTAINABLE

MZP Inc. is committed to protecting the environment. Like all of our titles, Canadian School Counsellor is published in the most sustainable way, and is printed on certified, recycled paper. Each issue of the magazine is replicated in a fully interactive, digital format.
